

Hammond Slow With Hospitality

Mrs. Clara M. Sears, survey woman of the State W. C. T. U. is becoming worried over the slowness of Hammond householders in volunteering to provide shelter for the 800 delegates who will be in the city for the state convention which will be held October 8 to 11.

It is part of the duties of Mrs. Sears to provide in advance for the entertainment of the visitors in connection with the local entertainment committee. She has just completed a canvass of the state delegates and announces that every one of the 800 will be in Hammond.

This means that 400 beds must be provided in Hammond homes. So far only accommodations have been volunteered for 250 guests. None of the delegates from Fort Wayne, Wayne, Muncie, Marion or Kokomo has been assigned as yet.

Hammond merchants have been quite liberal in response to requests for financial donations but the householders seem loth to throw open their homes. It is pointed out that the families should not feel that they are expected to entertain these people as their own guests. All that is asked is the use of a bed and if possible to furnish breakfast. Where breakfast cannot be had, provision for the morning meal will be made elsewhere.

Persons willing to assist in this matter are urged to communicate at once with Mrs. William Myers or any W. C. T. U. worker, who will convey the information to the proper persons.

QUEELS MOB THAT THREATENS LIVES OF FUGITIVE TRIO

Rev. Thomas M. Burke.

When Thomas E. Barrett, ex-soldier, was slain in Chicago a mob formed and chased three negroes accused of the murder. The negroes sought refuge in St. Gabriel's church. The mob was preparing to break into the church and seize the men when Rev. Thomas M. Burke appeared and halted the crowd until the negroes had been led away through another entrance.

returned from their cottage in Michigan where they spent the week end.

The Home Missionary Society of the First M. E. church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. B. Christopher, 11 West Carroll street tomorrow afternoon.

Last evening a surprise party was given by the members of the St. Andrews choir at 143 1/2th street, West Hammond, in honor of the 26th anniversary of Stanley Klawitter the director and organist of the choir. Among those present beside the choir were the pastors of the parish and Paul Muschlewicz, Paul and Julius Goyke, well known musicians and other friends from North Hammond. Mr. Klawitter came in September, 1895, to West Hammond as principal of St. Andrews' school and for the last 17 years has been the organist of West Hammond. A number of opera selections were well executed by the Reverend B. Nowakowski, accompanied by Mamie Rajkiewicz and Paul Goyke, who made a lasting impression. The guests were also surprised to hear the young violinist, Florence Paschke, who was accompanied by Bessie Klawitter, Sophie Klawitter, Julius Goyke and the choir.

Mrs. Mary Holmes and Mrs. Clark Wagner were hostesses to the literature department of the Hammond Women's Club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Holmes in Glendale Park. It was the first meeting of the year and forty three members were enumerated. The chairman Mrs. Walter Wise opened the meeting with a few well chosen remarks about the year's lesson study, which gave a pleasant and interesting outlook for the following year. Mrs. Lillian Mikesch played the beautiful "Serenade" by Liebling and Mrs. Bomberger in accompaniment.

cordance with the day's program on contemporary writers sang, "Still Unexpressed" by Carrie Jacobs Bond, "My Little Love" by C. B. Hawley and the poem "Trees" by Joyce Kilmer.

Mrs. E. S. Cooper had charge of the day's lesson study and compared the biographies of the two eminent American statesmen, Henry Waterson and Henry Adams. Mrs. Cooper very ably condensed the ponderous works and compared the diplomacy and bouyant outlook and the present day venacular of Waterson with the narrow, provincial but better English of Adams. She read excerpts from their respective books on their opinions of women suffrage and on their first impressions of Lincoln.

Mrs. Bomberger concluded the afternoon's program with a song "Just Be Glad" by Reilly. A social hour followed during which the hostesses served dainty refreshments.

The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. B. J. Steelman, 1029 Hohman street, tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. W. B. Beatty will be the assisting hostess.

PAIGE

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAR IN AMERICA

THE new Paige "Lakewood" Six-66 is a motor car that defies adequate description. One must actually see it to appreciate the exquisite body lines and general appointment. One must actually ride in it to appreciate the superb power plant which is capable of seventy-five miles per hour.

It is, as we have stated, a car without a legitimate competitor. It is comparable only with the very highest priced cars on the American and European markets. Yet—by virtue of its cost alone—the Lakewood is a member of the popular priced field.

Paige Prices Reduced

We are in receipt of a wire from the Paige Detroit Motor Car Company, advising of a reduction in prices on all current models, effective Sept. 30, 1920:

Model	Hammond Delivery Former Price	Hammond Delivery Present Price
6-66 SEDAN, 7-passenger	$4225.00	$3950.00
6-66 COUPE, 5-passenger	$4125.00	$3850.00
6-66 LARCHMONT	$3275.00	$3065.00
6-66 LAKEWOOD	$3175.00	$2960.00
6-42 ARDMORE	$2325.00	$2125.00
6-42 SEDAN	$3050.00	$2800.00
6-42 COUPE	$2950.00	$2675.00
6-42 GLENBROOK	$2060.00	$1900.00
6-42 LENOX	$2060.00	$1900.00

It was not necessary to make this reduction at this time and the Paige factory claims that they are accepting a heavy loss, but the spirit of the times is to lower prices.
